

Application Procedures for College Scholarships

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Applicant must complete and submit all forms to the Dallas Jewish Community Foundation by February 1, 2010.

All Documents must be the official original documents - no copies will be accepted. A completed scholarship application should include the following items:

- A. Completed application and photo.
- B. Current official transcript with GPA.
- C. Verification of test scores (SAT, ACT and/or GRE, LSAT, MCAT, or GMAT) if not on your official transcript, and if not previously submitted.
- D. Three recommendations from teachers, counselors, clergy members or employers, including at least one academic and at least one non-academic recommendation. (We suggest providing a stamped envelope, pre-addressed to the Dallas Jewish Community Foundation, ATTN: Scholarship Administrator, 7800 Northaven Road, Dallas, Texas, 75230-3296, when requesting a recommendation.) Applicants re-applying need only submit one new recommendation.
- E. 2010-2011 Student Aid Report (SAR). If you have not yet completed your SAR, please send a 2009-2010 SAR or the first page of the 2008 tax return. You must file the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) in 2010 in order to receive your current SAR. Please submit the FAFSA for processing between January 1 and February 15 in order to submit the SAR to the Dallas Jewish Community Foundation by March 15.

INFORMATION CONCERNING THE FAFSA APPLICATION

- You may obtain a FAFSA from your high school guidance counselor, financial aid office, public library, by calling 1-800-422-3243 or by visiting www.fasfa.ed.gov.
- You will not automatically receive an original SAR from the US Department of Education. However, you can access your SAR online at www.fafsa.ed.gov and print out a copy which you can submit to the Foundation. All applicants must submit a 2010-2011 SAR by March 15, 2010.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- You may be asked to participate in an interview (not all qualified applicants will be interviewed)*
- If you are chosen as a scholarship recipient, you will be required to submit proof of registration for full-time enrollment for the Fall 2010 semester, in addition to an official transcript of your most recently completed semester, before first semester funds are distributed. Recipients will be required to submit proof of full-time enrollment for the Spring 2011 semester, as well as an official transcript of grades for the Fall 2010 semester, before second semester funds are distributed. Only original documents will be accepted.
- Recipients are asked to attend the scholarship reception on May 17, 2010.
- Scholarships may be granted in successive years. However, renewal is not guaranteed. Past scholarship recipients are required to re-apply for the 2010-2011 academic year.

APPLICATIONS ARE CONSIDERED COMPLETE ONLY WHEN ALL REQUIRED MATERIALS ARE RECEIVED BY THE DALLAS JEWISH COMMUNITY FOUNDATION.
INCOMPLETE APPLICATIONS WILL NOT BE CONSIDERED.
ALL ITEMS ARE DUE BY FEBRUARY 1, 2010.

Minimum Criteria for College Scholarships

The ideal applicant for college scholarships awarded by the Dallas Jewish Community Foundation will demonstrate a strong personal commitment to moral principles and/or religious values, excellence in academic achievement, a deep concern for social justice, exemplary personal qualities and interpersonal skills, and financial need.

All candidates for scholarships must meet the minimum criteria of the scholarship(s) for which they wish to be considered.

Please read each of the descriptions carefully to determine the scholarship(s) for which you qualify. Be sure to mark ONLY the ones for which you qualify on your scholarship application.

Where there is no statement to the contrary, students must be residents of the Dallas-Ft. Worth area.

The 2010-2011 scholarships range from $200 to $5,000. The number of scholarships and their amounts are noted with their descriptions. Please check our website, www.djcf.org for updates on scholarship amounts.

If you have any questions, please contact Marna Edenson, scholarship administrator, at (214) 615-5278 or medenson@djcf.org.
